The Only way is ethics

Join the Conversation

The Only Way is Ethics is an 8-day ethical festival, which will take place across Glasgow from 29 November to 6 December 2015. It will culminate in a 2-day Vegfest event at the SECC.

The festival has a firmly 'green' perspective and a strong focus on social responsibility, social inclusion and the rights of animals. The aim is to generate a city-wide conversation, by asking the question, 'How can ethical thinking make Glasgow a better place for all?'

To stimulate this conversation, individuals, communities, organisations and businesses in every part of the city are being invited to work together to design and deliver a festival programme of music, film, theatre, art, literature, comedy, TV, radio, food, drink, exhibitions, lectures, social events, history, culture and politics.

We'd love to hear from you if you're interested in organising an event of any kind which highlights, examines or questions the ethical implications of the choices we make on a day-to-day basis.

The festival will also offer a platform for those wishing to make a practical and public commitment to ethical thinking. If you'd like to show your support in this way, please tell us your plans.

You'll be able to help create an Ethical Map of the city, take part in our Ethical Business Awards, suggest recipes for an Ethical Cookbook, and put forward policies for an Ethical Manifesto for Glasgow. Or, you can just come along and enjoy the events.

However you'd like to contribute, please get in touch, get involved and join the conversation!
